BDS Employee of the Month

Morgan Smith

BDS is proud to announce that Morgan Smith in Production is the January, 2018 BDS Employee of the Month. "I'm happy to have been chosen as employee of the month," states Morgan. "I really like working with the team here at BDS. We build great products, and we have a great time doing it."

"Morgan is a self-starter. You can hand him the ball and know that he will run with it. He'll get it done," states BDS President Rick Whitman. "If you tell him what you need, he'll make it happen. He's really technically savvy, and a good mechanic who can troubleshoot with the best of them. Morgan has really great ideas on processes and products. He fits in really well, and he's universally liked."

"Morgan is a great team member here at BDS. He cheerfully accepts the tasks that are assigned to him and has a great work ethic," states Jeff Bunker, BDS VP of Marketing and Sales. "Nicknamed "The Captain" by his co-workers, Morgan works very well with the production team, and I enjoy working with him."

"Morgan is a really good worker. He's reliable and intelligent, and he's great at what he does," states Production Manager Tim Bert. "He is our chair builder, does final assembly, and can complete every other production task that you can think of, from valves and syringes to foot controls."

"Morgan is a great asset to BDS," states System Administrator & Scheduler Michael Palma. "His flexibility and the speed at which he learns new skills allows us to utilize him in a variety of departments. From sub-assemblies to chairs, we have come to rely on Morgan's adaptability, often assigning him at the last minute. Morgan really has become our 'pinch-hitter', and we are very grateful for his contributions to our success here at BDS."

"Morgan is a good guy, and he works hard," says production worker Sarah Cramp. "He is steadfast and consistent, and he puts his all into everything that he does."

"Morgan is a really good guy to work with," says Randy Crete in production. "He is smart and talented, and he is just really good at what he does."

"Morgan is a very good worker, a hard worker," states customer service representative Pam Lawrence. "He's very dependable and very helpful, and very skilled with his knowledge of chairs. He is a real asset to the production crew, and very beneficial to have on the BDS team."

"Morgan has a great laugh and a great smile, and even when the going gets tough he stays focused and positive," says BDS Assistant Maria Vittoria. "He's really professional, and he does a great job working alone and with others."

"Morgan is punctual and a very hard worker, he's always on task," states BDS Accounting Manager Angie Atkinson. "He always has a smile on his face, you can tell he's got a great big heart."
