BDS Employee of the Month

Greg Hansen

BDS is proud to announce that Greg Hansen in inventory is the December, 2017 BDS Employee of the Month. "This is a real honor, because there are so many good people here," states Greg. "BDS has been a great company to work with. Next month it will be 5 years, and it has been nothing but ideal. I like the pace, I like the people, and I like everything about it."

"Greg is really a gift. He is focused and thorough, and always has a good word to say about people," states BDS President Rick Whitman. "He keeps the company's best interest in mind, and avoids all conflict. You will never find him involved in a petty situation. He has a very strong sense of integrity, and is a self-starter that requires very little supervision. He is steady and reliable, and I hope that he never leaves the team."

"Greg is steadfast and dependable. He is a great guy to work with, and has provided excellent support for us in the stock room," says BDS VP of Marketing and Sales Jeff Bunker. "His value is seen daily as he works with Customer Service, Production, and with our inventory. Greg's positive and caring attitude for the quality of our products and for his team members is apparent in everything that he does."

"Greg is a fantastic employee. He is reliable and always has a great attitude," states System Administrator and Scheduler Michael Palma. "Because of his strong work ethic, I have the utmost confidence in him performing at his best and bringing positivity to the workplace. Whatever he is asked to do he approaches with that same can-do attitude, and it is very much appreciated. He is truly one of those people that you look forward to seeing when you get to work."

"Greg always has a positive attitude," states Dani Leenders in inventory. "He's always early, and he's really helpful. He helps me in so many ways. And he's just fun. I'm with him all day long, and he is such a positive and thoughtful person to be around."

"Greg has always been one of the nicest people," says Accounting Manager Angie Atkinson. "He is very focused on getting his job done, and on doing it correctly. He works hard from the time he gets here until the time he leaves. He's a sweet guy, and I'm glad that he came here, because he is someone that you can count on, and I think that's a big deal. We all know how valuable he is to our team."

"Greg is truly the "wise sage" here at BDS. He is dependable, consistent, and hard working," states Purchasing Manager Chris Galambos. "However, he is rarely moving so fast that he misses the personal aspects of honest, caring interaction with others. Regardless of whether it's a fellow employee, a vendor dropping off parts, or the UPS delivery, he really wants to know the answer to the question 'how are you doing today?'"

"Greg is a very dependable person. He is very reliable, and extremely helpful in the stockroom," states Customer Service Representative Pam Lawrence. "He puts 100% into his job, and works really hard as part of our BDS team."

"Greg is a great person to work with," states Graphic Illustrator Angela Cretsinger. "He steps in whenever he can, and he is always positive, upbeat, and willing to help just about anyone."
